

Junior golfers from the New Jersey and Philadelphia Sections of the PGA met today at The Bedens Brook Club for the 6th Jon M Pritsch Memorial Cup. The weather was terrific and the course conditions were even better. When all 6 foursomes went through hole #5 the score was 9-9. After 12 holes Philadelphia held a slight lead, 9.5-8.5. Over the last 6 holes the New Jersey team was able to reverse the status of a few matches and came home with the victory for the 6th consecutive year.

New Jersey just needed 9 points to retain the Jon Pritsch Memorial Cup and walked away with a 9.5 - 8.5 victory. Although TJ Kaczan had a hard fought loss to Grant Schumaker in his singles match, he made a clutch putt on the 18th green to secure a 1 up victory in his fourball match. Kevin King held an early 1 up lead over University of Delaware golfer Kyle Martin but Kevin fell to 2 down after losing the 11th hole. Kevin won 3 of the next 6 holes to win 2&1.

The Harrison Schreider / Zach Egermayer team made 8 birdies on the front 9 and were in control of their match but a late run by Philadelphia forced the match to the 18th hole. Egermayer held on for a 1 up victory and Schreider's final putt on 18 put the team match out of reach.

Anina Ku, turned in another great tournament, besting Debbie Park 5&4. New Jersey took care of business in the fourball 6&5. In what might have been the crucial match of the day, Alexandria Yang finished strong and won 3 of her final 5 holes to turn an All Square match into a 3&2 victory.

Mark Schaare, former NJPGA Player of the Year, was on site representing the Pritsch family. Mark was impressed by the talent of the players but more important were his kind words about the sportsmanship he witnessed all day. The Philadelphia PGA will host the event next summer.
